Angola Gardens Mission Opportunity

Kutela Katembo, the new United Methodist missionary in Angola, has made the gardens at his mission school bloom again after years of neglect. But he needs new farming equipment—specifically, a seeder. The cost of the seeder and other equipment is $5,000. If you are a gardener or you just like to look at a beautiful vegetable garden, you might want to help Kutela and the children he provides food for by making a donation. Please send checks to the Rocky Mountain Conference UMC, c/o Noreen Keleshian, 6110 Greenwood Plaza Blvd., Greenwood Village, CO 80111 with "Angola" in the memo line. For more information about the Angola project, please contact Burl Kreps at bkkreps@msn.com. Thank you for your support!
